Briefly describe your Project. *

ATCO is committed to supporting Projects that foster Healthy, Sustainable and Prosperous communities.

Healthy - Projects that promote sustainable, healthy choices such as community vegetable gardens, delivery of/or access to healthy lifestyle programs and education.

Sustainable - Projects or initiatives that support the sustainable future of our local communities. In addition, initiatives that assist in making community events more sustainable such as the use of biodegradable containers or the promotion of recycling.

Prosperous - Projects or initiatives that address energy security, support renewable energy and greener, more sustainable communities. For example, installation of energy efficient technology.

Aligning with our commitment to reconciliation and increased economic opportunity of Indigenous people, we also have an additional focus:

Reconciliation for the benefit of Indigenous communities.

Reconciliation is not a stand-alone criterion but underpins all three (Healthy, Sustainable and Prosperous). We suggest that if community groups believe their project or initiative is for the benefit of Indigenous communities, to please note this in their application.
